LinkedIn

The ADIT LinkedIn Group has been established as a forum for ADIT professionals and students to network, discuss the latest issues in international tax, and ask advice about ADIT matters.

Looking for available ADIT courses in your area? Assessing the impact of the latest legislation? Interested in networking with other ADIT students and international tax practitioners? The LinkedIn Group is a great way of communicating with other ADIT people, especially if you are studying independently. Many students form study groups through LinkedIn. There are also posts from the CIOT on relevant student and member news.

Past exam candidate answers

A selection of answers from real candidates, who have successfully passed the examinations but are not prize winners, are provided on the website free of charge. These answers can be used alongside the questions from the examination, to obtain a comprehensive understanding of the past exams and the standard necessary to pass.

Extra time and alternative arrangements

The CIOT is committed to providing equal access to all students, and examination candidates whose personal circumstances require additional time or alternative arrangements can submit an application along with appropriate medical evidence.

For more information about applying for additional time or alternative arrangements in your ADIT examinations, or to request an application form, please contact us via email at info@adit.org.uk.

Please ensure that any application for additional time or alternative arrangements is made as soon as possible, in order to enable us to implement the necessary arrangements ahead of your examination.

Branch events

In addition to the UK branch network, the CIOT currently operates eight international branches: Asia Pacific, Australasia, Europe, Guernsey, Hong Kong, Isle of Man, Jersey, and North America.

If you have a CIOT branch in your region, you are invited to meet and network with other students, affiliates and CIOT members. Branches, as their primary function, offer the most affordable CPD training, which, although it may not seem to be relevant to the immediate ADIT exams, will assist you in progressing through your tax career.
